The Cuan Cavan Cancer Support Centre is now open Mon, Wed and Fri, 10-1 & 2-4 at 2 Keadue, Cavan (near the Cathedral).

The service is available to all Cancer patients and their family members, where they can avail of our free and confidential Counselling service (by appointment) and free Complementary therapies (also by appointment).

Pop in for a cup of tea and a chat and see the benefits of Cuan for yourself.

For further information please see our Facebook page Cuan Cancer Social Support Group or phone 086-4556632.

The Irish Cancer Society operates a free transport service for patients attending hospital for chemotherapy treatment. Volunteer Drivers pick the patient up at the door of their home, drop them at the hospital door, then when finished treatment, will pick them up and drop them home. Volunteer expenses are paid. Patients wishing to avail of this free service should contact their healthcare professional, visit the Society's website at irishcancer.ie or contact the Irish Cancer Society for more information on 01 2310 522.

Volunteers required

Alzheimer's Society of Ireland would love to hear from anyone who would be willing to give a few hours of their time volunteering in the Cavan Day Centre. If you can play music (in particular the piano), sing, dance, like doing arts/crafts or even if you just want to come in to have a chat, then please drop in or contact Geraldine on 086 3803898.
