Mass will take place at the Mass Rock in Shannow wood, Killoughter, Redhills this Sunday, July 15th at 11am, with the unveiling of a plaque to remember the contribution of the late Fr. Felim Mc Govern to the re-establishment of the Mass rock in 1975 as a place of reflection and prayer. Please note that it takes approximately 15 to 20 mins to walk from the main road at Killoughter Hall to the Mass Rock. All are most welcome to join the people of Redhills for this annual gathering in Shannow wood.

The Irish Cancer Society offers a free local transport service for patients undergoing chemotherapy and attending one of the following hospitals for treatment - Our Lady of Lourdes, Drogheda, Cavan General and the Mater hospitals. A driver will pick you up at the door of your home, drop you off at the hospital and then, when finished treatment, will collect you and drop you home. This is a free service and patients may bring a companion with them for support. To access the service please speak to your oncology nurse or Social Worker in the hospital or for more information, please call Laura on 01 2310 594 or email transport@irishcancer.ie.
