Thanks from Bishop Martin:

I thank all involved with the Ordination Ceremony which was conducted superbly and prayerfully. All who attended were welcomed warmly, seated safely by the stewards and guided by an excellent commentary throughout the ceremony. The well-planned liturgy could not have happened without the efforts of several volunteers, including Altar Servers and Readers and it was enhanced absolutely beautifully by the choirs, musicians and liturgical dancers. I thank each one of you for your time given generously to rehearsals over the past number of weeks. Thanks to our sacristy personnel the cleaning and grounds staff, flower arrangers and all who prepared the Cathedral fittingly for the occasion with bunting and banners.

I am grateful to all the Presbytery staff for their time and commitment given to the preparations. They and all the volunteers involved as well as the Parish Office staff were rewarded for their hard work. In thanking Deacon Thomas, I ask your prayers for him as he prepares for his ordination to priesthood on this Sunday, 27th September 2020 in Belturbet.
