Congratulations to Monsignor Aiden

Foynes, formally from Butlersbridge, who was ordained to the priesthood 60 years ago and will celebrate his Diamond Jubilee on 4th June in Clearwater, Florida where he has ministered since his ordination.

Today we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity, the revelation of the mystery of God's inner life. This mystery will remain for all of us as long as we live in this world, even though the veil which covers it is lifted ever so little. Our Bible assures us that not only is our God a personal God, but God exists as three Persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, while remaining one God.

"Two is company, three is a crowd" is a popular expression.

The gospel would have it otherwise. There, the figure 3 symbolises completeness and perfect symmetry, and re-appears at all the key moments of the Christ story. His life itself constantly reflected the Trinity.

Three figures make up the nativity scene in Bethlehem — the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Their first visitors were the three wise men. Later, in the desert preparing to begin his public life, Jesus was tempted three times by the devil. A good story should have a beginning, a middle and an end.

Christ was a storyteller par excellence and three figures prominently in his parables. The Prodigal Son is about a father and his two sons; the Good Samaritan tells of the behaviour of three passers-by, the priest, the Levite and the Samaritan; the sower sowed his seed in three different types of terrain, yielding three different levels of harvest. The end of his life, as the beginning, has again the three motif. During his Passion, Peter denied him thrice. On the road to Calvary, he fell three times.

The crucifixion scene has three figures, Christ between two thieves. Before his resurrection, he spent three days in the tomb. God is love.

Ave Maria Bible Study Group meet virtually on Zoom each Tuesday at 7.45. New comers always welcome to our informal friendly sharing together of God speaking to us through His holy Word. Text your prayer requests/intentions to Ave-Maria prayer line where they will be remembered during the week.
