Retirement

Our Cathedral Sacristan, Gerry, has decided to retire. Gerry will be greatly missed as he has been an integral part of the Cathedral team here in the parish for the last 11 years.

Through Gerry's hard work and dedication to his job the Cathedral always looks splendid. His preparation for all ceremonies and celebrations was always meticulous.

We all appreciate everything Gerry has done here over the years. He was always at the end of the phone to solve situations that occur in the Cathedral from trip switch to heating or indeed leaks. We wish you continued good health. The banter was always lively and that is very important too. I hope the golf handicap keeps falling!!!

Thank you again Gerry for your dedicated service and may God bless you and May.
